

Either by yourself or in class, count and clap the following examples. It may be helpful to write the counts below each note before you try to clap them.

