

Teens and Identity Exploration Note-Taking Guide

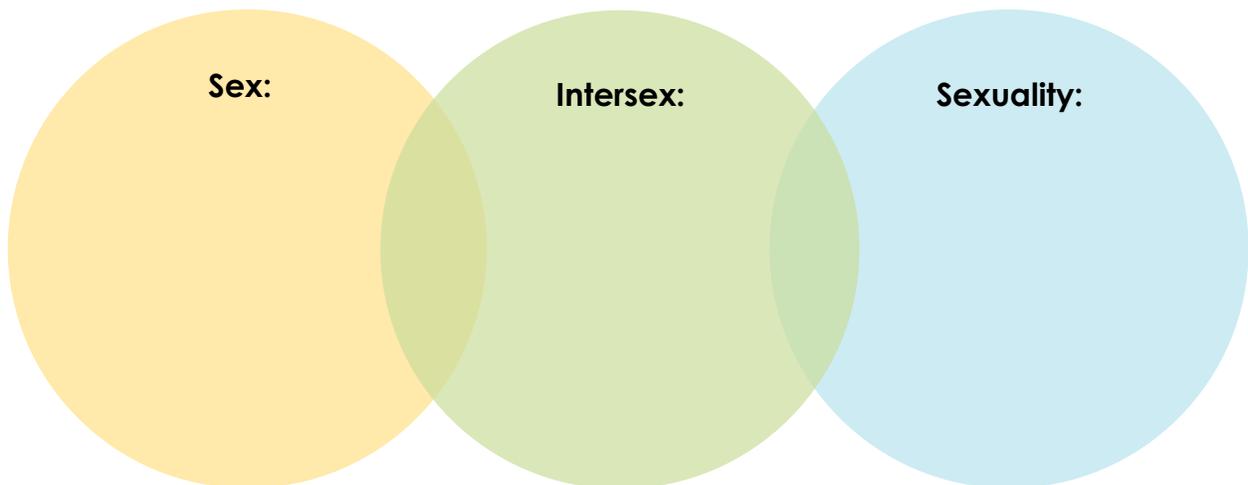

Adolescence and Change

1. Define adolescence and provide one example for each type of change included in the chart.

Sex and Sexuality

2. What is the difference between sex, intersex, and sexuality?

Teens and Identity Exploration

Gender Socialization

3. Define gender socialization, gender roles, gender, and gender expression.

Gender socialization
Gender roles
Gender
Gender expression

Gender Identity and Sexual Orientation

4. What are gender identity and sexual orientation?

Gender identity is . .

Sexual orientation is . . .

Teens and Identity Exploration

5. Write the correct term for each described gender.

Description of gender	Term to describe gender
Describes people who do not identify exclusively as either male or female
Describes people whose assigned sex at birth is the gender they identify with
Describes people who do not identify with a single fixed gender
Describes people whose physical appearance or behaviors do not align with the societal expectations of their gender
An umbrella term for a person whose gender identity or gender expression is different from the cultural expectations of their assigned sex at birth

6. What does each character of the acronym LGBTQIA+ stand for?

L =

G =

B =

T =

Q =

I =

A =

+ =

Teens and Identity Exploration

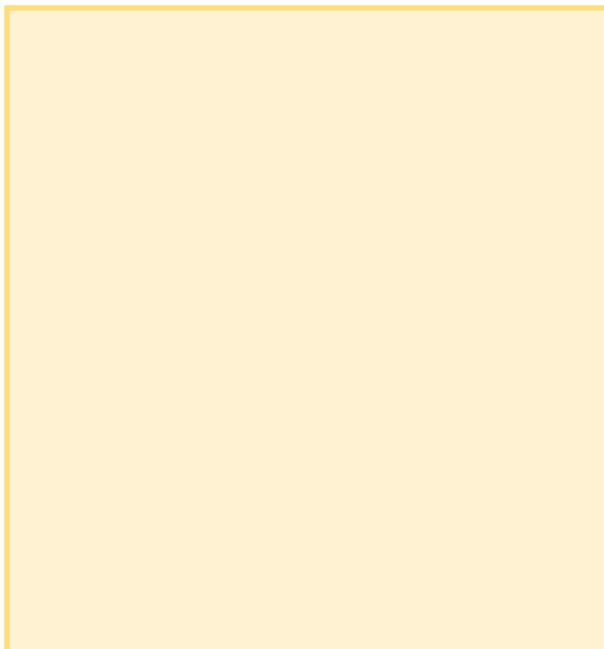

LGBTQIA+ Teens

7. Recently more celebrities and professional athletes have identified as LGBTQIA+, and the media has shared their stories. In your opinion, do you think people you know, including yourself, have become more accepting of LGBTQIA+ people? Explain your answer.

LGBTQIA+ Legal Rights

8. What are two nondiscrimination laws that may protect LGBTQIA+ people from discrimination, and how do they offer protection?

Teens and Identity Exploration

Resources for LGBTQIA+ Individuals

9. There are many national organizations that provide LGBTQIA+ people with resources. What are four resources included in the text?
