

Alcohol Use Disorder

1. Alcohol use disorder (AUD) is a(n) _____ condition that is diagnosed when a person's drinking causes distress or harm.
2. AUD ranges from mild to moderate to _____.
3. Fill in the following remaining circles with the most common reasons for teen alcohol use disorder.

Helping a Friend or Family Member Who Has a Drinking Problem

4. If you have a friend or a family member who has an alcohol use disorder, they need _____.
5. Talk with the person with the problem when they are _____.

Alcohol Treatment Programs

- An alcohol treatment program is where people go to get _____ help for an alcohol use disorder.
- Fill in the following empty boxes with the remaining types of alcohol treatment programs.

- A mutual support group is a group of people who have the _____ problems or concerns.
- What is the best-known alcohol mutual support group?

Medications

- Two of the most commonly used medications given to stop and reduce drinking follow.
  - Disulfiram (Antabuse), which will make you feel _____ or make you _____ up when you drink
  - Naltrexone (Revia), which _____ the craving you get from drinking

Residential Treatment Centers

- A residential treatment center is a center where you would _____ full-time for the length of your treatment.

Family Involvement in Residential Treatment Programs

- What are the two main support groups for families of people with an alcohol problem?

- _____
- _____