

Illicit Drugs Overview

1. _____ drugs are substances that are _____ to possess, have no medical application, and can be dangerous to consume.
2. Illicit drugs _____ or slow the central nervous system or cause _____ effects.

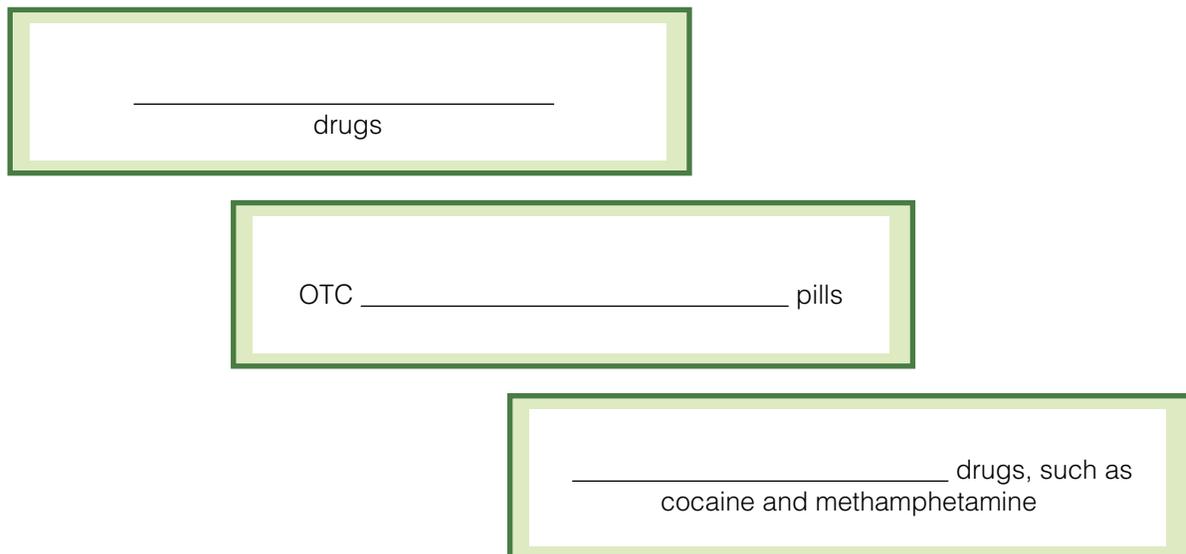

Marijuana

3. Fill in the following blanks to list the short- and long-term effects of marijuana use.

Stimulants

4. Stimulants include what?

Cocaine and Methamphetamine

5. What are some of the immediate effects of cocaine?

6. List some of the common effects of methamphetamine.

Opioids

7. Heroin is a(n) _____ drug made from morphine.

8. Heroin can be _____, snorted, or _____.

9. What are some of the short- and long-term effects of heroin use?

Short-term effects
_____ mouth
Heavy feeling in the _____ and _____ Difficulty in _____

Long-term effects
Inability to make _____ _____ behavior _____ and _____ complications

CHAPTER 12: Legal and Illicit Drugs

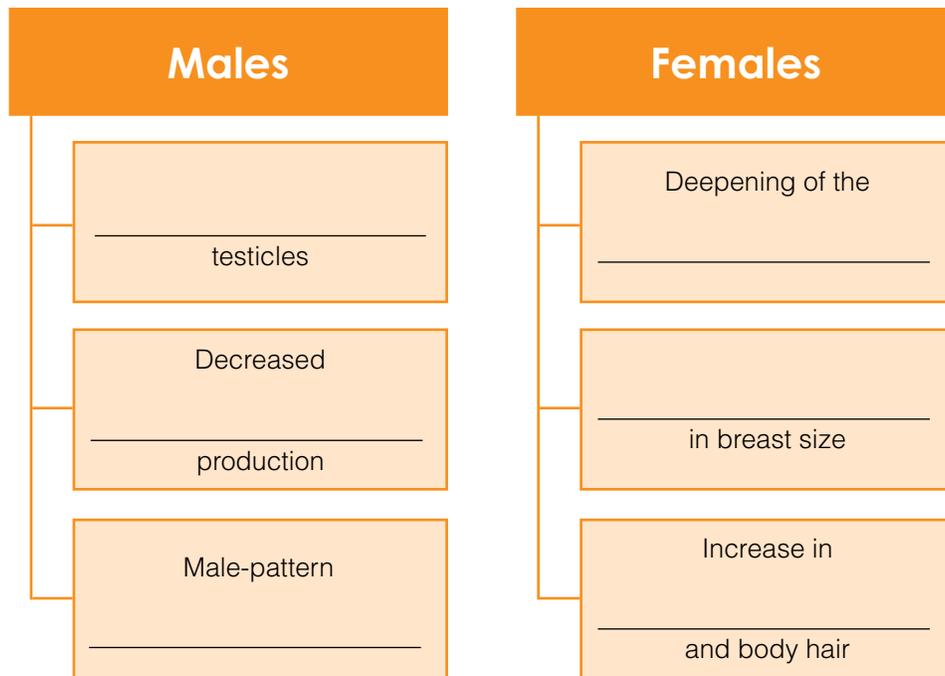

Lesson 12.2

Inhalants

- Inhalants are found in common _____ products (felt-tip markers, gasoline, and canned air) that produce chemical vapors that are inhaled through the _____ or mouth to produce _____-altering effects.
- Short-term effects may include slurred _____ and dizziness, and long-term effects can include loss of coordination and _____ damage.

Steroids

- Anabolic steroids are a lab-created version of the male hormone _____.
- Anabolic steroids are used illegally to promote _____ growth, enhance _____ performance, and improve physical appearance.
- Effects can include acne, mood swings, kidney problems, and aggression. What are other effects?

Club Drugs

15. Two examples of hallucinogens are Ecstasy and GHB. Fill in the following blank lines.

Ecstasy	GHB
Pill or _____ form	Colorless, _____ liquid
Causes _____ energy and an altered idea of place and _____	Used as a date _____ drug
Used as a date _____ drug because it increases sexual arousal	Mixed with _____ because it can cause the person to _____ out

16. What are two common prescriptions for benzodiazepines?

--	--

17. Rohypnol is known as a date rape drug because it can easily be put into a person's _____ without their knowledge. Effects can include temporary _____.

Why Some Teens Use Illicit Drugs

18. Fill in the blank lines with reasons teens experiment with drugs.

How Drugs Affect Athletic Performance

19. Drugs take a toll on your _____, _____, and physical and athletic performance in many _____ ways.
20. _____ affect your _____ and concentration, slow down your breathing, and reduce your _____.
21. Stimulants increase your _____ rate, can make you _____ and restless, and can make it difficult to concentrate on the game.

Illicit Drugs and Risky Behaviors

22. There is a direct connection between using illicit drugs and engaging in risky behaviors, such as unprotected _____, underage _____, and dating violence.
23. Teens who don't use any substances are the _____ likely to engage in sexual risk-taking.

Warning Signs of Teen Drug Use

24. Using Figure 12.5, list four warning signs of teen drug use.

